TOWN HALL
of California

...a meeting place

for the informed

...a rostrum for the timely

...a presentation

of facts and opinions

Town Hall is a unique forum presenting various viewpoints of leaders in management, labor, government, education, and the professions.

and

It provides an opportunity to meet the speakers, to express your opinion, and to meet persons with similar interests.

if

You are too busy to attend, the Journal, the Reporter, and occasional special Reports give you an overview of what has been said.

activities general luncheons

Nationally respected leaders discuss subjects of broad interest at one or more of our 4 regional forums: downtown Los Angeles, Orange County, Pasadena, and western Los Angeles.

section luncheons

The Sections are small discussion groups that deal with specific areas of concern. Speakers are selected for their distinction in specialized fields and the freshness and vitality of their ideas. These meetings are held in downtown Los Angeles and western Los Angeles.

executives breakfast institute

A series of breakfast meetings designed for business executives and professional people who are interested in widening their knowledge and expanding their viewpoint.

publications and outreach

Town Hall Reporter

Give-and-take discussions held in the informal atmosphere of the Sections are reported in digest form in this monthly magazine.

Town Hall Journal

A weekly publication that presents a condensation of the General Luncheon programs. It contains a 3-week Calendar of Town Hall events for your future planning and keeps you abreast of what is happening in your organization.

Town Hall On the Air

General Luncheon programs are broadcast nationwide to an audience of approximately one million listeners and by the Voice of America in 36 languages.

Town Hall Reports

In-depth studies made by the Sections result in informative and thought-provoking publications. Highly regarded in the community, these reports have been used as guides for public and business policies.

ELLIOT L. RICHARDSON
U.S. Ambassador at Large
"Town Hall is a great forum, a great means of discussing and providing wider understanding of issues and a great means of educating through the give and take of audience reaction."

ALICE M. RIVLIN
Director, Congressional Budget Office, U.S. Congress
"Government at all levels is strengthened when citizens become involved in the exchange of views on public issues of the day. Town Hall provides a most effective forum for encouraging a dialogue between citizens and public servants. Our democracy flourishes when we communicate with one another."

LEONARD WOODCOCK
Chief, U.S. Liaison Office, Peking
"Town Hall is one of the leading institutions in this country for the dissemination of ideas. By being host to all points of view, Town Hall makes a unique contribution to the development of American democracy."

WILLARD F. ROCKWELL, JR.
Chairman of the Board, Rockwell International Corp.
"Never before has there been a greater need for people to communicate than today. Thus, Town Hall, in presenting a free expression of ideas by knowledgeable persons from all walks of life, is providing a forum of inestimable value."
